

Dagenham hit by injury

DAGENHAM, who have got away to a surprisingly poor start after finishing third last season, will be without two back four players tomorrow (Saturday) when Wycombe Wanderers visit Victoria Road in the Rothmans Isthmian League.

So far this season, the Daggers have won only two of their eight games, against Clapton (3-0) and Hayes (4-2). They have lost to Leatherhead, Walthamstow and Slough and drawn with Woking, Ilford and Leytonstone.

Dagenham's progress this term has been severely marred by a number of injuries to key players. Goalkeeper Ian Huttley has only just returned to the side after a bad eye injury against Walthamstow while Dennis Moore is out with a groin strain and full-back Jim Lye is also injured.

injury

The Blues hope to have Terry Reardon back in midfield again after his bout of 'flu and manager Brian Lee is likely to continue experimenting in his bid to find the right blend.

By beating inconsistent Leatherhead 4-0 on Tuesday night, Dulwich take over at the top of the Rothmans Isthmian League, a point ahead of Enfield who thrashed bottom club Clapton 8-0. As Tuesday's result did not appear in most national newspapers, here's a run down on how the teams fared.

Division One: Bishop's Stortford 0, Ilford 0; Dulwich Hamlet 4, Leatherhead 0; Enfield 8, Clapton 0; Hendon 1, Walthamstow Avenue 1; Hitchin 1, Barking 1; Kingstonian 1, Hayes 4; Staines 4, Oxford City 1.
